

Praise your child

Children love to be praised it makes them feel good.

- Praise your child often
- Praise them when they behaves well and when they try to do something.
- Say what they did that was good. It will make them want to do it again.

For example 'Well done Mill you showed me the spoon' OR 'That's great, you waved bye bye.'

Every moment matters

